

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

TO
JOHN EMANUEL LIGHTFOOT, ESQ., OF QUARRY HILL,

THIS WORK IS (BY PERMISSION) RESPECTFULLY
INSCRIBED AND DEDICATED.

"If Chanting has been irreverently performed, so has Psalmody : if it is in use by the Catholics, so is Preaching ; if it is right to sing Scriptural truths in metrical verses of man's composing, it cannot be wrong to sing those truths in the very words of Inspiration."

Newman Hall, B.A.

PREFACE.

THE Chant, or 'Plain song,' was derived by the early Christians from the Jewish Church. In Chanting, therefore, we revert to the most ancient form of praise, and celebrate the greatness and goodness of God in strains which David and Asaph employed in the service of the sanctuary.

As an aid to devotion, and because it enables Christians to sing the very words of Scripture, Chanting is commended to the reader. We do well in adopting the devout Hymns which godly men have provided for Christian worshippers; but we do still better in retaining the Psalms which "holy men of God" wrote "as they were moved by the Holy Ghost."

Chanting is the only music that is adapted to these Divinely-inspired compositions; and it is on this ground mainly that success is wished to the Compiler of this little book, in his wise endeavour to revive and extend the practice of singing the "Psalms and Hymns and Spiritual Songs" which are found in the Holy Scriptures.

C. W.

EXPLANATION.

CHANTING is what may be termed a species of singing, or "Reading in tune." Chants are a limited number of notes, to which are intended to be sung, Psalms, the verses of which (unlike those of Metrical Hymns) are of an unlimited number of words.

Chants are divided into parts or strains, containing four and six notes alternately. A "Single" Chant is divided into two parts or strains, the first of which is subdivided into three bars, and the second into four. "Double" Chants are of the same construction, only double the length of single ones. The verses of each Psalm are also divided into two parts; and, according to the present arrangement, each part or strain in a Chant requires one part of a verse, which is divided by a double bar (||), thus :—

O sing un-TO the | Lord a · new | song ; ||

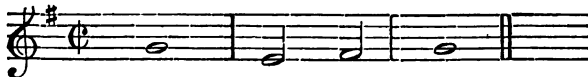

FOR | he hath · done | marvel- · lous | things.

The "Bars" or "upright lines" will be found to correspond to the bars of the music; the words between the bars being also divided by a dot (·) fixing the words or syllables to be sung to each note in the bar.

The first note in each part of a Chant is called the "Chanting" or "Reciting" note, to which note all the words as far as the word or syllable printed in CAPITAL letters are to be sung.

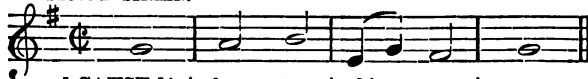

Example :—

FIRST STRAIN.

God be merciful UN-to | us · and | bless us ; ||

SECOND STRAIN.

and CAUSE his | face · to | shine · up- | on us.

In the above it will be seen that the word or syllable to be rested upon in the first strain is on the syllable UN- (in UN-to); and, in the second strain, on the word CAUSE. In both the above strains will be found a word or syllable immediately succeeding the Reciting word, and printed in Italics. In all verses where this occurs the Reciting note must be made into two notes, a dotted minim and a crotchet, and the word in Italics sung to the crotchet.

Example :—

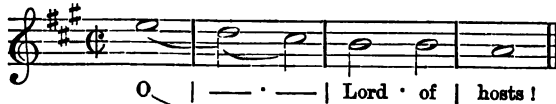

In those verses wherein an insufficient number of words are found for the number of notes in the strain, a dash (—) has been made use of to continue the preceding word as many notes as is necessary to complete the sentence.

Example :

FIRST STRAIN.

SECOND STRAIN.

In reciting long sentences, let not the words be too hurriedly run over, but repeated in a clear, intelligible, and devotional manner. This is indispensable to good Chanting, and is a quality easily attained by a little private practice.

The rules suggested by the Rev. J. A. LATROBE are excellent :—
“Pronounce each syllable distinctly, so that you may not only understand yourselves, but be understood by others. Avoid singing the first part of the clause in too great haste. The very design of the one long note, upon which the first part runs, is to afford time for the steady and clear pronunciation of each syllable and word ; and, for this purpose, the Organist should vary its duration according to the length of the verse.”
 —“Remarks on Chanting,” by Mr. J. GRAY, of York.

To facilitate this, the use of the "pause" (^) has been introduced, on which a short breathing is required. The benefit of this will be observed not only in the breaking of long sentences, but also in giving time for proper pronunciation.

In the present edition also has been introduced the "piano" and "forte" signs, on the margin of each page. By the observance of these, a good effect will be obtained, especially if the Organist adapt his composition to the power indicated. The following are the terms principally used :—

Piano ...	...	p	...	...	soft.
Double piano ...		pp	...	...	very soft.
Mezzo forte ...		mf	...	...	rather loud.
Forte ...		f	...	...	loud.
Double forte ...		ff	...	...	very loud.

When Double Chants are used, the latter half of the Chant must be repeated where the verses are of an unequal number. In places where the Doxology is not preferred at the end of a Psalm, a suitable conclusion may be formed by repeating the "Amen" to the last two notes of the Chant.

The terms "Major and Minor" are only indications of the sentiments of each Psalm, which may, perhaps, serve as a guide to the Choir-Leader in the choice of a suitable Chant.

It is the custom in some chapels for "Choirs" to select the Psalm for Chanting, which, however, should not be the case. One of the objects here aimed at is to provide variety enough for the "Minister" to choose "according to his subject."

It has been the desire of the Author in the publication of this work to facilitate the art of Chanting, and thereby enable the whole congregation to join in this harmonious and sacred mode of worship. If this should be accomplished by a moderate degree of care and attention to the instructions given, he will feel in no small measure compensated for his labour.

The Author cannot conclude these remarks without expressing his thanks to the Rev. C. WILLIAMS and Mr. W. H. HARGREAVES (of Accrington), the Rev. W. CHAMBERS, and other friends, who have so kindly assisted him in the promotion of the work.

[MAJOR.]

1. Let NOT your | heart · be | troubled : || ye believe in
GOD, be- | lieve · — | also · in | me.

2. In my Father's HOUSE are | ma- · ny | mansions ; ||
if it were not so, I would have told you : — I go TO pre- | pare · a | place · — | for you.

3. And if I go and prepare a place for you, — I will come again, and receive YOU | unto · my- | self ; || that where I AM, | there · ye | may · be | also.

4. And whither I | go · ye | know, || AND | — · the | way · ye | know.

5. I am the way, — the TRUTH, | and · the | life : || no man cometh un-TO the | Fa- · ther, | but · by | me.

6. If ye had known me, ye should have KNOWN my |
Fa- · ther | also : || and from henceforth YE | know · him, |
and · have | seen him.

7. Believest thou not that I am | in · the | Father, ||
AND | — · the | Father · in | me ?

8. The words that I speak unto you, I SPEAK | not of · my- | self : || but the Father that dwell-ETH in | me, · he |
doeth · the | works.

9. If ye love ME, keep | my · com- | mandments. || AND |
I · will | pray · the | Father,

10. And he shall give YOU an- | oth- · er | Comforter, |
that he MAY a- | bide · with | you · for | ever.

11. I WILL not | leave · you | comfortless: || I | — ·
will | come · to. | you.

12. Yet a little while, and the world se-ETH | me · no |
more : || be-CAUSE I | live · ye | shall · live | also.

13. At that day ye shall know that I am | in · my |
Father, || and YE in | me, · and | I · in | you.

14. He that loveth me not, keep-ETH | not · my | sayings, || and the word which ye hear is not mine, BUT the |
Fa- · ther's | which · — | sent me.

pp

15. PEACE | I · leave | with you, || MY | peace · I |
give · un- | to you.

16. Not as the world giveth, give I | un- · to | you. || Let not your heart be troubled, nei-THER | let · it | be ·
a- | fraid.

EASTER HYMN.

[MINOR.] 1 Cor. 5th, Romans 6th, and 1 Cor. 15th.

1. Christ our passov-ER is | sacri- · ficed | for us, || there-
FORE | let · us | keep · the | feast.

3. Not with old leaven, nor with the lea-VEN of | malice · and | wickedness, || but with the unleavened BREAD | of ·
sin- | cerity · and | truth.

5. Christ being raised from the DEAD, | dieth · no |
more, || death HATH no | more · do- | mini- · on | over him.

4. For in that he died he DIED | unto · sin | once, || but in that he liv-ETH, he | liv- · eth | un- · to | God.

5. Likewise reckon ye also yourselves to be dead in-
DEED | un- · to | sin, || but alive unto GOD through |
Je- · sus | Christ · our | Lord.

6. Christ is ris-EN | from · the | dead, || and become the
FIRST- | fruits · of | them · that | slept.

7. For SINCE by | man · came | death, || by man came
also the re-SUR- | rec- · tion | of · the | dead.

8. For AS in | Adam · all | die, || even so in CHRIST
shall | all · be | made · a- | live.

[MAJOR OR MINOR.] ROMANS XI.

p 1. O the DEPTH | of · the | riches || both OF the | wisdom · and | knowledge · of | God !

2. How unsearcha-BLE | are · his | judgments, || AND his | ways · past | find · ing | out !

3. For who hath KNOWN the | mind of · the | Lord ? ||
OR | who · hath | been · his | counsellor ?

4. Or who hath FIRST | given · to | him, || and it shall be recom-PENSED | un · to | him · a- | gain ?

mf 5. For of him, and through him, and to HIM, | are · all | things : || to WHOM be | glory · for | ever · A- | men.

[MINOR.] 1 CORINTHIANS XV.

f 1. Now is Christ ris-EN | from · the | dead, || and become the FIRST- | fruits · of | them · that | slept.

2. For SINCE by | man · came | death, || by man came
also the RES-ur- | rec · tion | of · the | dead.

mf 3. For AS in | Adam · all | die, || even so in CHRIST
shall | all · be | made · a- | live.

p 4. But every man in his own or-DER : | Christ · the | firstfruits ; || afterward THEY that | are · Christ's | at ·
his | coming.

pp 5. Be-HOLD, I | shew you · a | mystery ; || WE | shall · not | all · — | sleep,

p 6. But we shall all be chang-ED, | in · a | moment, || in the twink-LING | of an · eye, | at the · last | trump :

f 7. FOR the | trumpet · shall | sound, || and the dead shall be raised incorrupti-BLE, | and · we | shall · be | changed.

p 8. For this corruptible must put ON | in- · cor- | ruption, ||
and this mor-TAL | must put · on | im- · mor- | tality.

9. So when this corruptible shall have put ON | in- · cor- | ruption, || and this mortal SHALL have | put · on |
im- · mor- | tality,

10. Then shall be brought to pass the say-ING |
that · is | written, || DEATH is | swallow- · ed | up · in | victory.

pp 11. O DEATH, | where is · thy | sting ? || O | grave, ·
where | is · thy | victory ?

f 12. The sting of death is sin ; and the STRENGTH of | sin is · the | law. || But thanks be to God, which giveth us
the victo-RY through | our · Lord | Je- · sus | Christ.

[MAJOR.]

REVELATION V.

mf 1. And they SUNG a | new · song, | saying, || Thou art worthy to take the book, AND to | open · the | seals ·
there- | of :

2. For thou wast slain, and hast redeemed us to GOD |
by · thy | blood || out of every kin-DRED, and | tongue, ·
and | people, · and | nation ;

3. And hast made us unto our GOD | kings · and |
priests : || AND | we · shall | reign · on the | earth.

mf 4. Worthy is the LAMB | that · was | slain || to receive power, and riches, and wisdom, and STRENGTH, and |
honour, · and | glory, · and | blessing.

f 5. Blessing, and hon-OUR, and | glory, · and | power, ||
be unto HIM that | sitteth · up- | on · the | throne, ff 6. AND | unto · the | Lamb || FOR | ever · and | ever. ·

A- | men.

[MINOR.] FUNERAL CHANT.

p 1. Vital SPARK of | heaven- · ly | flame! || QUIT, O |
quit · this | mor- · tal | frame!

2. Trembling, hop-ING, | linger- · ing, | flying, || O the | pain, · the | bliss · of | dying!

3. Cease, fond na-TURE, | cease · thy | strife, || and let ME | lan- · guish | in · to | life.

pp 4. Hark! ∩ they whis-PER : | an- · gels | say, || SIS-ter |
spir- · it, | come · a- | way.

mf 5. What is THIS ab- | sorbs · me | quite, || STEALS
my | sen- · ses, | shuts · my | sight,

6. Drowns my spir-IT, | draws · my | breath ? || Tell ME, my | soul, · can | this · be | death ? ·

p 7. The world re-CEDES ; it | dis- · ap- | pears ! || Heaven opens on my eyes ! ∩ my EARS with | sounds · ser- |
aph- · ic | ring :

ff 8. Lend, lend your WINGS ! I | mount ! · I | fly ! ||
O grave, where is thy victo-RY ? O | death, · where | is · thy | sting ?
